Residents of The Colony at St. Paul's share insights on Retirement Living

THURSDAY, JAN. 26 • 6 P.M.

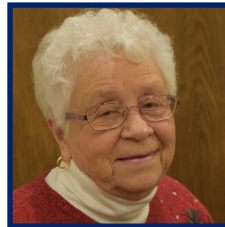

The Keifer Building at St. Paul's
341 East Jamestown Road, Greenville, PA 16125
(Rt. 58 across the road from the sports complex)

Tom and Nancy Hoffacker moved into The Colony from Hermitage Pa., in October 2015. Tom retired as the Director of Business Services at Penn State Shenango where he worked for 26 years. Nancy is retired from home daycare. Tom serves on The Colony Resident Council, participates in the Lay Ministry Program and is an Appointment Companion to campus residents. Nancy is a member of the Crafter's Club and volunteers whenever called upon. Both are official Ambassadors of the The Colony.

Mary Ellen Bayuk retired as an administrator at Penn State Behrend and moved into The Colony the very next day! (Jan. 1, 2014). A native of Greenville, Pa., Mary Ellen now is President Elect of The Colony Resident Council and serves on the Program and Marketing Committee of the Board of Directors at St. Paul's. She is also an active volunteer and Auxiliary member and opens her home to prospective residents on their initial tour of The Colony.

Gerry McElree, immediate past president of The Colony Resident Council and her husband, Dr. Frank McElree, a local physician, joined The Colony in 2011. Sadly, Frank passed away in 2013. Gerry serves as a New Resident Mentor at The Colony and is an official Ambassador of The Colony. She also volunteers much of her time with the Auxiliary at fundraisers and special events and is serving an unexpired term on the St. Paul's Board of Directors.

Conrad and Carol Koehler joined the The Colony community in April 2016. Conrad is Professor Emeritus of Philosophy at Thiel College where he taught from 1967 to 1998. Carol was a Registered Dietitian at the Greenville Wellness Center and is now also retired. The Koehlers both participate in the Crafter's Club for the Annual Auxiliary Craft and Bake Sale and they have both recently agreed to become official Ambassadors of The Colony.

Open Q&A session will follow panel presentation.
